MUST SELL – Vacant & ready for you!

The home was designed by Jeff Clarke of Troppo Architects and built by Stainton Master Builders. The philosophy in its design was to fit in with the environment; hence why it won the Energy Efficiency Award soon after completion. The 4 bedroom air conditioned home has recently been professionally painted inside and out. The position of the decks and verandas brings the outdoors in. The deck off the living room is a pleasant spot to relax near the trees and birdlife. The second larger deck off the dining room is ideal for entertaining.

- Stunning timber floors throughout the home
- Solid timber kitchen with lots of bench space and ample storage overlooking dining and living room
